THE BALTIMORES BEATEN BY THE BROOKLYN TEAM-OTHER GAMES AND SCORES. The Brooklyn and Ballimore clubs played at Washington ark, Brooklyn, pesterday. About 3,700 people were resent, and better weather for a baseball game has not sected the players this year. Cunningham, the exceeding pitcher, did good work against his old companional process.

The home players took the lead in the fourth inning and eld is to the end. The visitors played poorly in the field. held it to the end. The visitors played poorly in the field. Forguson tried Gaffney's plan of umpiring behind the pitcher with success. The Brooklyn men played in splendid trim except in the eighth finning, when their spienala from except in the eight inning, when their work resembled the playing of a lot of schoolboys. Many ladies were present, while Mayor Chapta watched the players from the balcony.

No runs were scored on either side until the fourth inning, when the home men got one tally. Pinkney was struck by a pitched ball, and after reaching first stole to second. He went to third on McClellan's out, stole to second. He went to third on McClellan's out, and scored on Orr's sacrifice to first base. The home players scored three more runs in the fifth inning, and made their lead look more secure. Smith was sent to first on called balls, and reached second on a wild throw by O'Brien. Radford sent the ball between Farrell's feet, and Smith scored on the error. Another wild though to O'Brien advanced Badford to second from whom throw by O'Brien advanced Radford to second from where scored on a hit by Terry. Pinkney's three-bagger to right field sent Terry across the home plate. A two-base hit by Orr and a single by Fourz gave the home nother run in the sixth inning. Errors by Greenwood, Buras and O'Brien gave the Brooklyn men another run in the seventh inning. Errors by Smith and McCleiand basehits by Sommers and Shindle gave the Baltimore players five runs in the eighth inning. The score

PRINCETON BEATEN BY YALE.

A STIRRING BALL GAME AT NEW-HAVEN-THE JERSEYMEN IN HARD LUCK.

New-Haven, May 5 (Special).—The clouds and rain of morning faded into sunshine and brightness shortly before the hour for the Yale-Princeton ball contest erived this afternoon. It was the first intercollegiate contest at New-Haven this season, and the field was crowded with Yale men and friends of the blue. Princeton was represented by a delegation of seventy-five students, who brought with them all the inoney the associates could scrape together. During the past week the Yale nine has trained faithfully, and for the first time during the past two months, Stagg has manifested an interest in his work. Consequently, Princeton found plenty of takers on wagers of ree to one in favor of Yale.

The game was called at 3 o'clock, and Princeton took the bat. Stagg showed that he had profited by constant practice, for his delivery was like lightning. For Princeton, Wopenhurst made third on a base-hit and two steals, but was put out while trying to steal home. Durell fouled out and L. Price and Reynolds failed to reach first. For Yale, Stagg, McConkey and Calhoun all failed to reach first. In the next inning Stagg struck King out, Dana fouled out, and W. Price got out at first. For Yale, Hunt made a short grounder and reached first, then stole to third by brilliant slides, and was left there by Dann, Osborne and Walker, who failed to reach first. In the third inning Stagg seemed to get "rattled," and allowed Murcur to get first on balls. Murcur stole to third, where be was left by Ames, Wopenhurst and Durel. After Heyworth had been retired at first McBride made a brilliant two-base hit, stole third and scored on Mursecond, stole to third and scored while Princeton was falling over the ball which Calhoun had sent to right field. A moment later Hunt made a two-base hit, but Stagg and Osborne failed to leave the plate.

In the fourth, Reynolds, of Princeton, fouled out, Dana made a two-base hit and scored a moment later on a two-base hit made by King. Price and Ames were put out at first by McBride. For Yale, Walker, Heyworth and McBride were all put out at first. In the fifth, Murcur, Wopenhurst and Durel were all put out by McBride, assisted by Stagg. For Yale, Stagg led off with a two-base hit and a moment later scored on cConkey's two-base hit. Calhoun made a two-bagger and McConkey scored. Hunt allowed Calhoun to score. Dann made a three-base hit and Hunt scored. Osborne struck out, Walker made a two-base hit and Dann scored. Heyworth struck out, and Walker stole ome Stagg struck out, and pandemonium reigned in Princeton's camp. In the sixth inning Dann, Reynolds and King all scored on safe hits and errors made by Stagg. In the sacceeding innings neither nine scored. Murcur retired from the box at the beginning of the sixth inning, and King pitched the remainder of the game. Stagg gave six men bases on balls and made six wild pitches.

Princeton played a good game but had hard linck. The brilliant plays of the game were made by King for Erinceton, and McBride, Dann and McConkey for Yale. McBride played a phenomenal game. The score was as follows:

Princeton 0 0 1 0 3 0 0 4 4 4 0 6 0 0 0 10 Yale 0 0 0 4 0 6 0 0 0 0 10 Yale men took about $1,000 on the game.

SCORES OF BABIES VACCINATED.

The branch office of the Health Board at No. 809 Mulberry-st. was crowded with Hebrow babies and their par-ents yesterday. All the babies needed vaccination and got it. Most of them and their parents needed washing, and the young dectors who did the vaccinating were near-ly choked by the odors in the crowded rooms. The overflow of bables and mothers blocked the sidewalk in front of the branch office until late in the afternoon. Similar crowds collect at the bureau on every Saturday (the Hebrew Sabbath) in May, as there is a widespread belief among residents of the Hebrew quarter east of the Bowery that May is a lucky month in which to get protection from the smallpex. TRYING TO COLLECT FROM COL. FELLOWS.

THE INDEBTEDNESS NOT BENIED-A CLAIM OF SIX-TEEN TEARS' STANDING.

The case of Gescheidt and others against Colone ellows was continued before Referee Davenport yesterday. Honry M. Gescheidt appeared for the plaintiffs, and George Hill for the defendant. The question at issue dates back between fifteen and sixteen years and concerns a claim for $7,150, or thereabo against Colonel Fellows. It is alleged by the plain-tiffs that he has withheld and misappropriated this sum out of moneys received by him as referee in a partition suit brought by the heirs of Dr. Moritz A.

Out of a mass of technicalities, exceptions and objections the following points were made clear yesterday: Colonel Fellows's counsel admitted that some amount, se could not say how much, is due in law from the Colonel to the Gescheidt heirs, but claimed that his client had not been at fault in withholding the money during all these years, as the claimants had not at during all these years, as the claimants had not attended to having the expenses taxed, and had omitted certain other formalities. The plaintiffs, on the other hand, claim, and endeavored to prove, that they made every possible effort to effect a settlement and were repeatedly put off by Colonel Fellows, who promised to attend to the matter as soon as he could. They say that he has used the money.

It was expected that Colonel Fellows would be present to testify, but he sent word that he was too busy to come. The hearing was adjourned to Monday at 4 p. m.

NO VESSELS TO CARRY COAL Philadelphia, May 5 (Special).-Coal shippers on Third and Walnut sts. complain of the duluess of trade. A prominent merchant said to-day: "Orders from New-England come in slowly and there is great trouble in getting coal there, owing to the scarcity of vessels. Freights to Boston have advanced to $1 10, but without attracting much tonnage to this port. A large number of small craft were lost in the winter and few new ones were put into the trade. Besides this the activity in the South Carolina phosphate trade has drawn a number of vessels to Southern waters that formerly plied between this city and New-England.

DIED FROM SWALLOWING HER FALSE TEETH. Mrs. Francés Murray, ago forty, had a fit of coughing in her home, at No. 236 West Twentieth-st., on April 27, and accidentally swallowed her false teeth. There were four teeth on a rubber plate, and they stuck in her throat in such a position that they could not be removed without much danger and dimently. Dr. C. B. Allen, of No. 21 East Twenty-eighth-st, was called to attend her, but it was not until Wednesday that he was able to dislodge the teeth from her throat. Meanwhile Mrs. Muray had been deprived of food ray had been deprived of food, had suffered constant pain and had been in danger of suffocation. The teeth had worn a hole in her ocsophagus before they were removed. She continued to fail rapidly despite the removal of the obstruction, and yesterday morning, when she had fallen ato a comatose condition, she was removed to the New York Hospital. She died at the hospital in the after-noon. An autopsy last evening showed that her death was caused by exhaustion following the perforation of the

A FATAL QUARREL OVER SOME DIRTY RAGS. Thomas Prititz, a young Italian ragpicker, who was rrested at the Grand Central Station on Friday night charged with murder, was committed to the Tombs yes-terday to await a requisition for his removal to Stamford, Conn. He quarrelised with Guiseppe Biagetto, another raspicker, about a bundle of rags in Stamford on Friday and Biagetto tried to run away with the rags. Pritita then drew a revolver and shot Biagetto dead in his tracks The murderer Immediately got on a train bound for this city in the hope of making his escape, but a telegram headed him off in time.

Otto Lock, one of the iron-workers employed on the ew Manhattan Bridge, fell off the structure into a mud bank at the edge of the Harlem River yesterday. He fell a distance of seventy feet, but the soft mud saved his life. He suffered from shock, although no bones were broken, and the police sent him to the Hariem Hospital after some of his fellow workmen had dragged him out of the mud. Lock is thirty-one years of age, and his home is at No. 854 East One-hundred-and-fourteenth-st.

HOW CAME THE IMMIGRANT THERE! The body of a man was discovered in the water near Castle Garden yesterday. Apparently the man had been drowned, but his body had not been in the water many hours. He was about fifty years of age and his dress in dicated that he was an immigrant. In his pockets were some keys, a silver watch, a pair of cycglasses and a let-ter addressed to "Conrad Neufer, Philadelphia, Penn." The body had not been identified at the Morgue last even-
